

YUNCTURE

By approving this document, you accept that Yuncture AB (corporate identity number 559093-6265), as well as the parent company Hammarviken Företagsutveckling AB (corporate identity number 556520-2685), will save the personal information you provide. This is the kind of information required to continue the application process. The personal data handled and saved is in accordance with the questions in the application form.

Duration of information collection

Yuncture and Hammarviken will only save your answers, as well as personal information, during the time that the current application is open.

Processing of personal data

Yuncture and Hammarviken will not forward your information to a third party. Your data will only be processed by people directly linked to the incubator program. The treatment of your information is only done to continue evaluating your application.

Your right to access what we collect about you

According to GDPR, you have the right to have your data deleted or corrected. You also have the right to see what personal information we provide about you. Please contact us by email, info@yuncture.com, if you want this information.